CITY OF DECORAH

APPOINTED BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS

Introduction

Citizen boards and commissions are established by the City Council to assist in its efforts to meet the needs of the community. Most are created to meet ongoing needs and continue to exist for as long as they provide assistance to the Council. Some are mandated by state law. The structure, duties, and responsibilities of these bodies vary depending on each one's specific purpose or mission. However, all have one feature in common—they were established to improve the quality of life for the citizens of Decorah. Thus, by serving on one of these bodies, residents have an opportunity to join with local government and administrative staff to ensure that the needs of Decorah citizens are served.

Serving on a board or commission is a significant and meaningful way to participate in civic life. As a member, you can share your expertise while directly participating in shaping your community. Many people choose to serve on boards and commissions as a means of gaining new skills, sharing diverse viewpoints, or to “step out of a comfort zone.” Some might also choose to utilize their seats as a means to attain higher leadership positions, appointed or elected.

The City of Decorah is looking for diversity of experiences and skills on its boards and commissions. Most often, a person is appointed to a board or commission because of a particular skill, interest, or expertise. Others may have a general background in a subject, such as health care or the environment, and be selected to serve on a board with responsibilities related to that subject.

Specific expertise is not a requirement to apply for all boards and commissions. Do not hesitate to get more information about a board or commission that interests you. Use this booklet as a guide, contact the city clerk or city administrator at 563-382-3651, or check out the city's website at www.decorahia.org for more detailed information.

City Government

The Mayor is elected to a four-year term. The Mayor presides over Council meetings and also appoints the Chief of Police with Council approval and one Council member to act as mayor pro tempore. The Mayor can be contacted at the numbers above or at mayor@decorahia.org.

The Decorah City Council has seven members representing five wards, plus two at-large members. Members have staggered four year terms with each member serving on numerous committees as assigned by the Mayor.

The council appoints the following positions: City Manager, City Clerk, Treasurer, Deputy Clerk, Water and Sewer Superintendent, Assistant Water and Sewer Superintendent, Street Commissioner, Assistant Street Commissioner, Waste Water Treatment Plant Superintendent, and Park and Recreation Director. Appointments are made at the first meeting after the biennial City election as mandated by City Code.

The Council may also appoint a City Engineer and City Attorney.

Selection and Appointment to Boards / Commissions

In general, all board or commission members are appointed by the Mayor with the advice and consent of the City Council. Selection criteria varies depending upon the purpose, mission and requirements of each body. The following characteristics, however, are common to all board or commission members:

- An interest in the board's / commission's area of concern
- The ability and willingness to work
- The ability to work with other people in a tactful and cooperative manner
- The time to carry out the board's/commission's duties / responsibilities
- A community point of view

Prior to accepting a position on a board or commission, citizens should be aware of that body's meeting schedule to ensure they will be able to make the necessary time commitment. Citizens who accept a position on a board or commission also accept responsibility for committing a portion of their time to preparing for meetings.

How to Apply to Serve on a Local Board/Commission

The application for all appointed city boards and commissions is on the city website (in fillable format) at www.decorahia.org and also appears on the next 2 pages of this booklet.

Interested citizens may complete and submit an application for any of the boards/commissions at any time. Applications can be submitted on line, or an applicant may copy and complete the application attached and turn in to the city administrative office. Applications are kept on file at the city administrative office.

Also, when there is a vacancy on a board or commission, notice is given to the public via local media. At such times, new applications received and those on file are considered to fill the open position/s.

Learning About Boards and Commissions

Learning all you can about boards and commissions is critical to making a decision to commit to serve. You want to fully understand the function, purpose, and mission of any board or commission before seeking an appointment.

Contact the city administrative office or log onto www.decorahia.org to obtain more information and descriptions of the city's various boards and commissions. Look up the ordinance, law or enabling statute that established the board's/commission's existence and mandate.

Review the board's / commission's meeting minutes, strategic plans, annual reports, or newsletters.

Attend a meeting of the board/commission or an event they sponsor to form an impression of how the body operates.

Talk to current members serving or those who have served in past on the board / commission. This is perhaps the best way to learn what commitment is expected or needed as part of an appointment. You can find lists of those currently serving on the city website at www.decorahia.org and checking under City Administration, Boards and Commissions.

Serving on a board or commission is a significant and meaningful way to participate in civic life.
