Agenda

Discussion on Locust Road Improvement Project and consulting engineering

The overriding issues on the project seemed to be easements, a timeline for construction, alternate routes and detours and storm water issues.

Schissel noted he would like to see the project extend all the way to the city limits.

Johnson noted that the costs for construction are only getting higher each year, he urged something get started.

Schissel and Hadley agreed that the bike trails, sidewalks and specific layouts are a big issue.

There was a little discussion regarding the proposed round-about.

The committee agreed to think on the issue and reconvene in mid-September on selecting an engineer.

There was no other business and the meeting adjourned at 8:35pm.

Respectfully submitted,
