17.16.130 - General sign regulations.

- A. Conformance Required. Except as may be hereinafter specified, no sign shall be erected, placed, maintained, converted, enlarged, reconstructed or structurally altered which does not comply with all of the regulations established by this title.
- B. Maintenance. All signs shall be maintained in a good state of repair, including, but not limited to, the structural components, the lighting, if any, the portion attaching the sign to the ground or structure, and the surface features.
- C. Nonconforming Signs. Where a sign exists at the effective date of adoption or amendment of the ordinance codified in this title that could not be built under the terms of this title by reason of restrictions on area, use, height, setback or other characteristics of the sign or its location on the lot, such sign may be continued so long as it remains otherwise lawful, subject to the following provisions:
 - 1. No such sign may be enlarged or altered in a way which increases its nonconformity; however, reasonable repairs and alterations may be permitted;
 - 2. Should such sign be destroyed by any means to an extent of fifty percent or more of its replacement cost at time of destruction, it shall not be reconstructed except in conformity with the provisions of this title.
- D. Permit Required. A sign permit, approved by the zoning administrator, shall be required before the erection, construction, alteration, placing, or locating of all signs conforming with this title.
- E. Permit Not Required. A permit shall not be required for repainting without changing permanent wording, composition or colors, or for nonstructural repairs.
- F. Plans. A copy of plans and specifications shall be submitted to the zoning administrator for each sign regulated by this title. Such plans shall show sufficient details about size of the sign, location, materials to be used, and such other data as may be required, for the zoning administrator to determine compliance with this title.
- G. Appeal. Any person or persons aggrieved by the decision of the zoning administrator to approve or disapprove a sign permit, as provided by this title, may appeal such decision to the board of adjustment as provided by Chapter 17.28 of this title.
