Feeding Iowans Task Force

#FeedingIowans

The Feeding Iowans Task Force was created by Gov. Kim Reynolds to assist Iowans impacted by food insecurity during the COVID-19 pandemic.

The Task Force, chaired by Lt. Gov. Adam Gregg, is comprised of representatives from the Iowa Food Bank Association, the Iowa Departments of Agriculture, Homeland Security and Emergency Management, Public Health, Human Services, Education, Aging, Volunteer Iowa, ISU Extension & Outreach, Waverly-Shell Rock United Way, and the governor's office.

The objective of the Task Force is to obtain a complete picture of the feeding operation across all applicable populations and identify any current or potential future shortfalls or gaps in our ability to continue feeding operations as needed. The task force is meeting this objective through raising awareness of hunger, identifying potential gaps in Iowa's food system, and connecting Iowans with food resources during the pandemic.
